Description of Program

The Medical Administrative Specialist program is designed to prepare students for employment in a variety of administrative roles within the healthcare industry, including positions such as information technology assistant, front desk specialist, medical office technologist, and medical administrative specialist. The curriculum emphasizes the use of technology to develop strong communication, critical thinking, and decision-making skills. Students gain proficiency in medical terminology, office procedures specific to medical environments, and the use of advanced business software applications, including medical practice management software. The program also covers job search strategies, the creation of professional employment portfolios, and the development of high-quality job-seeking documents. Through the integration of theoretical instruction and practical application, students are well-prepared to earn the Certified Medical Administrative Assistant (CMAA) certification through the National Healthcareer Association.

Admissions & Financial Aid Process

For the complete admissions process, visit www.sheridantechnicalcollege.com/getting-started or scan the QR code. Applications are accepted year-round, so don't delay —start the admissions process today and take the first step toward your new career!

Florida Residency for Tuition Purposes

A "Florida resident for tuition purposes" is defined as someone who has, or a dependent person whose parent, legal guardian, or spouse has, established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least twelve consecutive months prior to the first day of the academic term. Individuals who do not meet this requirement are classified as non-Florida residents and are subject to a higher tuition rate. To be considered for in-state tuition, applicants must complete the Florida Residency Affidavit for Tuition Purposes and submit two supporting documents that verify Florida residency. For detailed information on acceptable documentation and to access the form, please refer to the admissions process or contact a program counselor or advisor for assistance.

Basic Skills

Students enrolled in programs of 450 hours or more are required to take and pass a basic skills test in order to receive a Career Technical Education certificate upon program completion. However, students enrolled in programs that are less than 450 hours are not required to take the basic skills test. Additionally, some students may qualify for exemptions based on specific criteria. For detailed information about testing requirements, exemptions, and test preparation resources, students should visit www.sheridantechnicalcollege.edu/basic-skills-prep-guide, scan the QR code or contact the program counselor/advisor.
